

Conflict, Stability and Security Fund: the facts

- Cross-government fund that provides development and security support to countries at risk of conflict or instability.
- Aim is to support the implementation of National Security Council strategies and 2015 UK aid strategy.
- Uses both UK aid (ODA) and non-aid funding.
- Its worldwide network includes 360 staff and consultants.

CSSF annual spend*

CSSF aid spend by government department (2016)

Top 5 countries by spend (2016-17)

- 📍 Afghanistan £90 million
- 📍 Syria £64 million
- 📍 Somalia £34 million
- 📍 Jordan £25 million
- 📍 Lebanon £24 million

Top 3 thematic areas by spend (2016-17)

- 27% Security and justice
- 21% Political and stabilisation processes
- 11% Governance and human rights

*2015-16 and 2015-17 figures are subject to departmental audit. Other figures are projections.